LEADING OFF...

- The Evansville Otters face off with Gateway for the first time in 2022 and for the first of two series in a week.
- The Otters have hit homeruns in four straight games.
- Evansville is 2-4 in series in 2022 - their only series wins coming via sweeps against the Empire State Grays and Lake Erie Crushers.
- The Otters have won every game they did not commit an error in (5-0).
- Evansville is off to a 3-0 start in divisional play.
- The Otters missed taking the field for a postseason appearance for the first time since 2015, excluding the canceled 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- The Otters had winning records against all three other teams in the West Division in 2021, including a 10-8 record against Southern Illinois and a 10-2 record against Florence. In fact, the only team on the Otters' schedule they had a losing record against was the Schaumburg Boomers, who went on to win the 2021 Frontier League Championship for the fourth time in the last decade.

NOTES

LAST GAME OUT RECAP

EVANSVILLE, Ind. - The Evansville Otters completed their second sweep of the season Thursday behind Tim Holdgrafer's eight scoreless innings in a 5-3 win.

Evansville got the game's scoring started with a two-run single from centerfielder Miles Gordon in the bottom of the second inning.

One inning later, the Otters' lead doubled with a solo home run from third basemen J.R. Davis before left fielder Jeffery Baez scored on an error.

The 4-0 lead held on until the seventh, when the Otters added a run of insurance on an RBI single from Baez.

In the meantime, Tim Holdgrafer was dominant on the mound for the Otters, not allowing a hit until the sixth inning.

Holdgrafer would leave the game after the eighth inning, giving up just two hits, walking a pair and striking out 10. It was his second double-figure strikeout performance of the season.

Lake Erie struck in the ninth, as Jake Polancic entered the game for the Otters. Designated hitter Jackson Valera reached on a hit by pitch and third basemen Kokko Figueiredo got on with a single. The two were brought home by a three-run home run from centerfielder Jared Mang.

Logan Sawyer would then enter the game for the Otters, navigating around another walk to close the game out, earning his Frontier League-leading fifth save.

The win was earned by Holdgrafer as Brock Begue was handed the loss.

Evansville out-hit the Crushers for the third straight night, 9-4.
